

Approximating Eigenvalues in Gaps.

Michael Strauss

Eigenvalues which lie within gaps in the essential spectrum of a self-adjoint operator cannot generally be found by a direct application of the Galerkin (finite-section) method. This is due to spectral pollution - sequences of Galerkin eigenvalues which converge to points in the resolvent set. I will discuss a new technique for locating these eigenvalues.